SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...Mr. President and members of the body. LB 582 provides that zoning measures, which are already subject to protest procedures at the city level, would not also be subject to referendum or limited referendum. Current law allows qualified electors to use referendum to amend or repeal measures, like ordinances, charter provisions and resolutions which affect the governance of municipalities, except those operating under home rule. Section 18-2528 provides that certain measures are not subject to referendum or limited referendum, including measures to carry out contractual obligations, measures relating to industrial development projects after the initial approval for the projects, measures adopting proposed budget statements, and unanimously passed, urgent measures relating to the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, and measures relating to solid...specified solid waste facilities or systems which are
